TROUBLE FOR JOCKEY DUGAN

KEENE'S TRAINER, ROWE, MAKES FORMAL CHARGES.

Says Sir John Johnson's Rider Purposely Interfered With Maskette-V. Powers Makes Protest of Foul Against King James in Same Race at Sheepshead.

The running of the Sheepshead Bay Hap licap, one mile, at the Coney Island Jockey Club's track yesterday bristled with rough riding and ended in a controversy that will have to be settled by the stewards of the Jockey Club. Trainer James Rowe, who handles James R. Keene's stable, has pre-ferred formal charges against Jockey Eddie Dugan, in the employ of August Beimont, and cites Dugan's tactice on the Beverwyck Stable's Sir John Johnson yesterday's race. When S. C. Hildreth's King James, sup ported by the wise men, won this event by half a length from Mr. Keene's Maskette in 1:37 3-5, equalling the track record, Powers, who rode the Keene mare, hurried before the stewards with a protest of foul against the winner, at the same time declaring that Shilling, who rode the Hildreth horse, had struck Maskette over the nose with the butt end of his whip as the last sixteenth pole was reached. Powers also said that Maskette had been carried wide by Sir John Johnson and Dugan at the head of the stretch and that she had also been bumped by King James near the end of the journey.

The stewards interviewed Shilling, who denied Powers's charges and also stated that Maskette had almost knocked the Hildreth horse down on the backstretch. The stewards did not deliberate long they dismissed Powers's protest and ordered the red board up. But that only increased the anger of Trainer Rowe, who insisted

"Mr. Keene will have to do somethin about this rough riding!" exclaimed Rowe, preferred charges against Dugan, for he deliberately took care of Maskette by constantly interfering with her. It is about

Rowe complained to Mr. Belmont several days ago that Dugan was purposely interering with various homes and that the natter should be taken up by the stewards. But nothing was done. Lugan's tactics in yesterday's race promited hundreds

Why did he interfere with Maskette?
Why didn't he try to keep his own horse next to the rail instead of carrying the Keene mare wide at the head of the stretch and at the same time letting Shilling come through on the rail with King James? What was behind it all? In fact what has been sehind other queer looking races won by When the race was started Sir John Johnbehind other queer looking races won by horses backed by a certain clique?

When the race was started Sir John Johnson and Mary Davis went to the front. Powers kept Maskette close up, with King James not far away. As soon as Maskette began to make her run and overhauled Sir John Johnson Dugan swung his mount away from the rail and carried the Keone mare wide. Then Shilling saved many lengths by slipping through on the rail at the head of the stretch with the Hildreth horse, who showed a vast improvement over his previous races. Maskette then got away from Sir John Johnson and went after King James. At the sixteenth pole they came together with a bump and many spectators said Shilling was to blame. The collision threw Maskette off her stride and just about beat her, as King James reached the wire half a length to the good. Czar a neglected outsider, ran a fair race and was third, eight lengths away, beating Sir John Johnson a head.

Mr. Keene's Cowl, a black filly by Disguise—St. Mildred, 2 to 1, after a ragged start in the third race, for maiden two-year-oids, five furiongs, Futurity course, won rather easily by three lengths in 131. R. F. Carman's Rye Straw, 20 to 1, in a drive nailed the place by half a length from Samuel Rose's Dr. Duenner, a good thing.

Prince Gal, fleorige Odom's star sprinter, ran 4 cracking sood race in the highweight handicap, at six and a half furiongs main track. He packed 128 pounds and under patient handling by McGee he trailed benind the pacemakers, R. F. Carman's Magazine, H. B. Duryea's Dreamer and Leopold Kahn's Ben Loyal, to the head of the stretch. In the last few jumps he managed to get his head in front, his time being 120. Dreamer was second, a length and a half in front of Magazine.

Waterway, in spite of the rumor that he wouldn't do, won the steeple-hase handicap, at about two and a half miles. When Heider let him down the Welkin, 5 to 2, and beat her in a breeze by thirty lengths in 5:15. Monte Carlo was third, badly beaten, after crowling Tappington into a barrel mark
